LET YOUR SOUL BE YOUR COMPASS

Hi, I am Patricia

A Second Chance Ambassador who helps women rediscover hope, clarity, and direction when life has taken an unexpected turn. After rebuilding my own life from rock bottom, I now guide others on a powerful, metaphorical journey—helping them step off survival mode, reconnect with who they truly are, and move forward with purpose and confidence. My talks are soulful, practical, and deeply human, blending storytelling with simple tools that leave audiences feeling seen, inspired, and ready to create a meaningful new chapter.
