PATRICIA SPEAKS AS SOMEONE WHO HAS LIVED THROUGH INSTABILITY — SOFA SURFING, FINANCIAL LOSS, GRIEF, AND STARTING AGAIN IN MIDLIFE — YET CHOSE TO REBUILD WITH FAITH AS HER FOUNDATION.

WITH ACADEMIC GROUNDING IN PSYCHOLOGY AND A HEART ANCHORED IN SCRIPTURE, SHE BRIDGES THE GAP BETWEEN SPIRITUAL ENCOURAGEMENT AND PRACTICAL TRANSFORMATION.

HER MESSAGE REASSURES WOMEN THAT THEY ARE NOT BEHIND. THEY ARE NOT FORGOTTEN. AND THEY ARE NOT FINISHED

About Patricia

Hi, I'm Patricia K. Taylor-Shipley. I'm a speaker and storyteller who shares how God meets us in our lowest moments and gently reroutes our lives with purpose, hope, and redemption.

After losing everything and finding myself on my knees more than once, asking God why my life kept falling apart, I discovered something profound: I was not being punished – I was being redirected. What felt like derailment was actually preparation.

Today, I share my testimony to help women see that no matter how broken, delayed, or off-track life feels, God is still writing their story.

My talks are rooted in faith, scripture, and lived experience, offering encouragement, truth, and practical reflection for real life

Signature Faith-Based Talk

The Train That Saved Me: When I Had Nothing Left, God Sent a Train

Patricia shares a powerful true story of losing her home, her security, and the life she thought she would live — and discovering that even when everything felt derailed, God was still directing the track.

With vulnerability, biblical truth, and practical wisdom, she guides audiences through the journey from breakdown to breakthrough — showing that no season is wasted and no life is beyond redemption.

Alternative Talks

The Re-Orient Express: When God Invites You to Begin Again

A faith-anchored message using the metaphor of a journey to explore God's redirection and restoration.

Themes include:

- God's timing versus our plans
- Letting go of shame, fear, and self-blame
- Stepping into the next chapter with faith and courage

Second Chances and Sacred Detours

A reflective and encouraging message about God's grace, forgiveness, and the power of new beginnings.

Themes include:

- Biblical examples of second chances
- Releasing the past without carrying guilt
- Walking forward in alignment with God's purpose

What Congregations Experience

- Deep reassurance that God has not abandoned them
- Freedom from shame and “why me?” thinking
- Renewed faith in God’s plans and timing
- A sense of peace, hope, and spiritual clarity
- Encouragement to trust God with the next step

Ideal For

- Women’s church events & conferences
- Retreats & quiet days
- Christian women’s networks
- Testimony services & special services
- Small groups and ministry gatherings

Patricia’s Heart & Credibility

Patricia’s message flows from lived faith, not theory. Once labelled an educational failure, she later earned degrees in psychology and business psychology, but her greatest qualification is the faith that carried her through loss, rebuilding, and surrender.

She speaks with humility, compassion, and authenticity – always pointing hearts back to God’s faithfulness rather than personal achievement.
